^①Sometimes we tell a lie to get out of trouble. ^②But guess what? ^③To hide one lie, we might have to tell another one. ^④The more we lie, the harder it gets to remember everything. ^⑤After a while, we might forget what we said. ^⑥This can make us say things that don't match up. ^⑦In the end, people can find out the truth!

^⑧Mark Twain, a famous writer, said, "if you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything." ^⑨This means that when we are honest, we don't have to try hard to hide a lie.

^⑩Telling the truth is easier and safer in the long run. ^⑪Being honest makes us feel less worried. ^⑫So when you think about telling a lie, remember the saying: ^⑬"Honesty is the best policy."
