¹Friedrich Nietzsche was a famous thinker from Germany. ²People called him the philosopher with a hammer. ³Why? ⁴He wanted to break old ideas. ⁵He said, "God is dead." ⁶This made many people think about what they believe. ⁷This quote was important because it came when many people were starting to believe in Charles Darwin's idea of evolution. ⁸Darwin said that humans did not come from God but changed from tiny living things. ⁹This shift in thinking happened alongside many new inventions that were changing the world.

¹⁰Nietzsche believed these changes made people think for themselves. ¹¹He wanted them to create their own beliefs instead of just following old traditions and religion. ¹²With old values losing their power, Nietzsche saw a chance for people to build something new.

¹³Because of this, new styles in art and writing began to appear. ¹⁴Painters used bright colors and strange shapes to show strong feelings. ¹⁵Writers explored what happens in our minds.

¹⁶Nietzsche's challenge to old beliefs helped shape the modern world and how people think today.
