<sup>1</sup>The world is rapidly running out of fossil fuels. <sup>2</sup>This makes the prices of coal, oil, and
natural gas go up. <sup>3</sup>To solve the problem, scientists are focusing on hydrogen.

<sup>4</sup>Hydrogen is ideal for many reasons. <sup>5</sup>First, it is a renewable energy source. <sup>6</sup>We do
not need to worry about running out of it. <sup>7</sup>Since it is made from water, it turns back into
water after use. <sup>8</sup>Hydrogen also produces water vapor when burned. <sup>9</sup>It does not emit
smoke or pollute the environment. <sup>10</sup>That's why it is called "clean energy."

<sup>11</sup>However, we need to find a cheap way to make hydrogen. <sup>12</sup>Producing hydrogen
requires special equipment. <sup>13</sup>This costs a lot of money. <sup>14</sup>Another problem is that
hydrogen may explode while being stored under extreme pressure. <sup>15</sup>When that happens,
the damage will be severe. <sup>16</sup>If we can solve these problems, hydrogen will be a safe and sustainable energy source.
